CENTRAL TEXAS COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS
Request for Qualifications
Instructions

The Central Texas Council of Governments, Belton, Texas is soliciting qualified firms to conduct a Joint Land Use Study-Implementation (JLUS-I).

General Information

The Central Texas Council of Governments Planning and Regional Services hereinafter referred to as CTCOG serves as the planning organization for various services in the Central Texas area. The CTCOG serves a seven county area that includes the counties of Bell, Coryell, Hamilton, Lampasas, Milam, Mills and San Saba.

CTCOG is issuing a request for qualifications for firms to conduct the implementation phase of the recently completed Joint Land Use Study for the Fort Hood area. This study is funded through a grant from the Office of Economic Adjustment (OEA) with matching funds provided by participating entities. The scope of work is to plan for and initiate the JLUS recommendations outlined in the final Fort Hood JLUS document and manage the work of the selected consultant firm under RFQ 17-01. The proposal timeline for the project is 18 months. Questions about the RFQ may be sent via fax to: Carmen Lim, (254) 770-2260 or email at carmen.lim@ctcog.org. Questions regarding the RFQ must be received by noon on March 8, 2017. The final Q & A document will be posted on the CTCOG website by close of business on March 9, 2017.

One original of the project response must be received at the CTCOG by 3pm CST on March 15, 2017. Email submissions are acceptable and must be received by the same deadline.

Part I

Selection Process

The submittals will be evaluated by CTCOG staff. However, CTCOG reserves the right to select an independent review team for the purpose of RFQ evaluation should the need arise. The following considerations apply to the selection process:

- A. All submittals considered must be received on time and be responsive to the RFQ instructions.
- B. CTCOG staff will base their selection(s) on general qualifications, project knowledge and understanding, ability to serve, and background.
- C. Paper responses must be on 8 ½" x 11", 8 ½" x 14" or 11" x 17" only.
- D. Electronic responses must be formatted for 8 ½" x 11", 8 ½" x 14" or 11" x 17" output only.
- E. CTCOG will base final selection on the evaluation factors exhibited in the evaluation criteria (Part II of this document).
- F. It is the policy of CTCOG to pursue Historically Underutilized Businesses. However, the selection process will follow the weighted scoring criteria as exhibited in this RFQ.
- G. Final selections will be posted on the CTCOG website following successful contract negotiations.

Part II

RFQ Evaluation Criteria

The review and selection process will include the following criteria and value system:

Criteria	Maximum Value

Part III

RFQ Conditions

1. CTCOG reserves the right to accept or reject any or all responses to the RFQ.
2. This RFQ does not commit CTCOG to pay any cost incurred prior to the execution of any contract. All contracts are contingent upon availability of state and local funding.
3. The intent of this RFQ is to identify firms qualified to perform the tasks identified in the Project Scope. CTCOG is under no legal requirement to execute a contract from any response submitted.
4. Respondent agencies shall not make contact with, or make offers of gratuities or favors, to any officer, employee or member of the CTCOG. Questions should be directed only to the RFQ contact person (see pg. 2). Violation of this instruction may result in immediate rejection of the response submitted.
5. All responses received and their accompanying attachments will become property of CTCOG after submission and materials will not be returned.
6. CTCOG reserves the right to select and/or contract with more than one firm from the responses to the RFQ.
7. The selected contractor must agree to comply with all applicable terms and conditions specified in the contract between CTCOG and O.E.A. (specifically Article VII Subcontracts) as well as all certifications, assurances, and forms required under CTCOG's procurement policy.
