Course Description

This Course will cover material in a general summary format of selected court cases and changes to Texas' criminal law by the 84th session of the Texas Legislature.

Students will receive TCOLE credit for attending mandated training in state and federal legal updates for the 2015-2017 training unit.

Officers carrying firearms must be in uniform, or have weapons carried in a professional concealed manner. In lieu of agency uniform, officers may wear a police type jacket, or other professional police training clothing which clearly identifies the individual as a peace officer while on the Temple College Campus.
